

DISCHARGE PLANNING QUESTIONS

For Geriatric Patients

WHO NEED HOME CARE

1.

Did you or your spouse serve in the military?

If yes... go to #2 or read below.

The veteran may be eligible for VA Health Care but must enroll first with the Veterans Health Administration (VHA).

The veteran may be eligible for VA benefits for home care through the Veterans Benefits Administration (VBA) or Veterans Health Administration (VHA).

If yes... go to #3 or read below.

VA Official wartimes:

- World War II: Dec. 7, 1941-Dec. 31, 1946
- Korean Conflict: June 27, 1950-Jan. 31, 1955
- Vietnam Era: Aug. 5, 1964-May 7, 1975
Or Nov. 1, 1955-May 7, 1975, for those who served in country of Vietnam.
- Persian Gulf War: Aug. 2, 1990- TBD

The veteran

- May be eligible for the VA Pension with Aid and Attendance.
- A service-related disability, combat duty or overseas service is not required.
- The maximum monthly benefit is up to $2,431 per month.

The surviving spouse of a veteran

- May be eligible for the VA Pension with Aid and Attendance.
- The spouse must have been married to a qualifying veteran for at least 1 year and at the time of the veteran's death.
- The maximum monthly benefit is up to $1,318 per month.

2.

Did the veteran serve during wartime?

3.

Does the patient have a networth at or below $138,489?

If yes... go to #4 or read below.

A primary residence or car is not counted as part of net worth. Ongoing non-reimbursed medical or custodial care expenses can be deducted from countable income.

If yes... contact us!

Call:
888-314-6075

Visit:
www.veteranshomecare.com

Email:
info@veteranshomecare.com

4.

Would you like me to refer you to Veterans Home Care?

VetAssist[®]

Exclusive to the VETERANS HOME CARE[®] Family

Veterans Home Care's VetAssist Program has helped more than 20,000 patients access VA benefits to pay for care and get care started right away before VA funds arrive.

Veterans Home Care and VetAssist are not government agencies or affiliated with the Department of Veterans Affairs, (VA).